

WHAT I WENT THROUGH

Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Natick, Mass.—"I cannot express what I went through during the change of life before I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was in such a nervous condition I could not keep still. My limbs were cold. I had creepy sensations, and I could not sleep nights. I was finally period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth its weight in gold for women during this period of life. If it will help others you may publish my letter."

—Mrs. NATHAN D. GIBSON, 51 N. Main Street, Natick, Mass.

The Change of Life is the most critical period of a woman's existence. Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

KANSAS' FARM HIS BANK.

Appraisers Find That a Pleasanton Pioneer Hid $2,938.

Pleasanton, Kan., Feb. 10.—A search of the property of the late James Martin of Trading Post, Kan., who died three weeks ago, by the appraisers resulted in the finding of $2,938. The money was hidden in purses and boxes in the house and in the farm buildings. The estate of a bank in 1893 in which Mr. Martin lost $1,900 caused him to lose faith in banks. Searchers found most of the money in a barrel in a smokehouse and in cans hidden about the farm. James Martin was born in Smith county, Tennessee, September 22, 1830. Later he moved to Illinois and in 1855 came to Kansas and settled near Trading Post, and in 1865 removed to his home here, where he died. He married Mrs. Harriet Merritt, a widow of Lincoln township, May 14, 1863.

Newsboy 10 Years Old.

Chicago, Feb. 10.—Orasmus Page, Joliet's oldest "newsboy" who for years has been a familiar figure at the railroad station where he sells newspapers is ill, and owing to his age, little hope is entertained for his recovery. Page this month will complete the 103rd year of life. He became ill more than a week ago but continued at work until yesterday when he gave up, and his wife, who is 95 years old, delivered papers and sent them to passengers boarding trains.

STILL IN THE DARK.

Police Are Unable to Get on Track of Erie Grave Robbers.

Erie, Feb. 10.—Detectives are working on a case today that may lead to some material developments in connection with the robbery of the Scott mausoleum in the Erie cemetery, Louis Wadlinger, a milk dealer, has informed officers that about 4 o'clock on the morning of January 27, his wagon was stopped near the cemetery by a man who asked for a match. Wadlinger says the man told him he had heard hammering in the cemetery and later saw four men emerge through a hole in the cemetery fence. Wadlinger lives on a dairy farm near here. He did not hear of the robbery until last night and today related the incident to the police.

On account of the reticence of the police and members of the family much mystery surrounds the desecration of the mausoleum. Although a statement issued by the family is to the effect that the body stolen is that of Mrs. Anna M. McCollum, a sister-in-law of Mr. Scott, rumors are persistent that the shrouds have taken the body of the millionaire congressman. It has been impossible to secure a confirmation, except to investigate the story told by Wadlinger the police are at sea. There has been no demand for ransom and this fact has served to mystify the authorities.

SCHLEY FALLS ON ICE.

The Admiral Is Suffering From Two Broken Ribs.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Rear Admiral Winfield Schley, who suffered a fracture of two ribs by a fall on an icy sidewalk here a few days ago was a little better today. He rested fairly well last night and no complications have arisen.

WANTED: ONE POLICEMAN.

Ben Bow City, Illinois, Has Nobody for the Job.

Ben Bow, Ill., Feb. 10.—Ben Bow City aldermen are tired of acting as policemen and they have petitioned Mayor Olney to organize and drill a force of one policeman.

Each alderman now carries a key to the Ben Bow City jail, but they can't put anybody in the jail, because it burned two months ago. They fear that if they should exercise their vested power to make arrests that they would have to take the prisoners home with them and furnish food and lodging until the trial in the court house, which also burned.

Ben Bow City has 18 voters, four saloons, six aldermen and one mayor. This leaves 11 citizens eligible for the policeman's job and the 11 are all working at something else. Each saloon has a proprietor and bartender, if it is ruled that there are not eligible as policemen only three police officers would be left. Of these, one is the fire chief and another is the coroner. They cannot be expected to double up as policemen and so only one man is eligible and he moved away from Ben Bow City last week.

BUOYS HOPE OF PRISONERS.

Meeting of Federal Parole Board Opens at Leavenworth.

Leavenworth, Kan., Feb. 10.—The board of parole for United States penitentiaries convened at the federal prison here today. More than 300 applications for paroles are on file, many of them accompanied by letters and petitions.

All meetings will be in executive session and Warden McLaughrey refuses to state what applications are pending. It is known, however, that several bankers now in prison hope to get a recommendation from the board.

EMBEZZLEMENT IS CHARGED.

One of Owners of Late Emporia Journal Arrested at Atchison.

Atchison, Kan., Feb. 10.—Henry King of Atchison, until recently engaged in newspaper work in Emporia, Kan., and one of the owners of the late Emporia Journal, was arrested here late night on a charge of embezzlement by the sheriff of Lyon county and taken to Emporia. The charge seems to have grown out of financial entanglements following the collapse of the Journal.

King received $5,000 as his share of the estate of his father, the late S. C. King of Atchison, last July. All this money is said to have been spent.

PAXTON & PAXTON

Germany's Big Cities.

Has 47 of Them With Over 100,000 People Each.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Figures compiled from the 1910 Imperial German census show that there are 47 cities in the empire having a population in excess of 100,000 and form an interesting comparison with the statistics of the thirteen census of the United States which shows 50 cities with this population.

Berlin, Germany's largest city, with 3,600,000 inhabitants, has 2,064,123 or one-half million more people than Philadelphia. It is exceeded in population by Chicago by 121,000.

Compared with New York Berlin has not half so many people. With its suburbs which are intended to be included in greater Berlin it has about 3,400,000 which would make it more than a million less than New York.

Hamburg, Germany's second city, is in a class by itself, there being no city in the United States close to its size. It has 2,500,000 inhabitants making it 249,000 larger than St. Louis and over half a million less than Philadelphia.

Munich with 593,053 and Leipzig with 585,743 are both larger than Cleveland. Frankfurt with 414,406 is only several thousands smaller than San Francisco.

Dusseldorf with 358,123 is smaller than Cincinnati and larger than Newark. N. J. Nuremberg with 332,539 is slightly larger than Washington. Charlottenburg, a suburb of Berlin, with 304,259 is a little larger than Minneapolis.

CO-EDS IN A CHARITY PLAY.

Benefit for Poor Children of Lawrence Settlement by Students.

Lawrence, Kan., Feb. 10.—A cast composed of seven young women enrolled in the school of fine arts at the University of Kansas will present a one-act sketch Friday of next week, entitled "The Piper's Play." The play is given for the benefit of Settlement House, an institution in North Lawrence, which cares for the poor children of the city.

The staging is under the direction of Miss Veda Walker, assistant instructor in the elocution department.

New Rule Up to Kansas Town. Arkansas City, Kan., Feb. 10.—At a special meeting of the city council it was decided that the mayor be required to call a special election for the purpose of voting on the commission form of government. Two years ago the voters of this city turned the proposition down at a regular election. The special election is set for March 17.

Away With Pills and Purgatives

The habit of taking salts or strong cathartic pills every time you want to loosen the bowels is a bad one, for in time you will destroy the activity of the digestive tract and you will have to rely entirely on medicines for action. This is not a pleasant thing to look forward to. From infancy to old age the use of strong purgatives should be avoided. This can be done by the use of a mild laxative like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. While it is mild enough for a baby to use yet it is strong enough to give action in the most robust constitution. The letters of endorsement the doctor gets are from no one class—mothers who take it, mothers who give it to babies and children, people in the prime of life, and old people. It is successful with them all. It is in truth the ideal remedy for constipation, indigestion, biliousness, heartburn, gas on the stomach, liver or bowel trouble. A bottle can be obtained of any druggist at fifty cents or one dollar, but you can make a free trial of it by writing Dr. Caldwell for a free sample bottle. He will be glad to send it to you. You can not do better than read the letters printed here, and then act on their suggestions.

The following are some extracts from letters Dr. Caldwell has received:

"I received the sample of Syrup Pepsin, liked it, and have bought a regular bottle of it. It is an excellent medicine and very pleasant to take. I would not do without it again."—Robert J. Allison, Walnut Bottom, Pa.

"I haven't had a bad spell with my stomach since taking the first dose of Syrup Pepsin. I continued to take it for some time, as I had been afflicted twelve years and couldn't expect wonders overnight, but the fact is I can eat anything now and feel as if I had a new lease on life."—G. W. Selby, Branshear, Mo.

"Your Syrup Pepsin is unquestionably a fine remedy for stomach and bowel trouble, and should be in every home. While this is given voluntarily, and comes to you unsolicited, you may use it to promote the sale of your valuable remedy. May success attend you in the introduction of this fine and valuable medicine."—E. B. Gibson, Crystal Springs, Miss.

"I received sample bottle of Syrup Pepsin and liked it so much that I bought a bottle from my druggist and have taken nearly all of that and will get another bottle soon. I like it better than anything of the kind I have ever tried."—Mrs. John L. Moore, Clinton, Ky.

"I received your sample bottle and have used two other bottles besides. I find it a very good medicine. I keep it in the house all the time. Would not do without it."—Mrs. Dollie Graves, Hamilton, Ohio.

"I have used your Syrup Pepsin for years and would not be without it."—W. L. Bryant, F. M., Sardis, Tenn.
